Containers will be in the breezeway marked by "teams" and items can be deposited before school, and during brunch and lunch. To make it fun, it is a competition between the academic grade level teams. Note: We particularly need canned goods and nonperishable food items. Please help us gather the most amount of cans by sending your student with cans to donate. Also please, no glass, open containers or outdated items (check those expiration dates). Go JLS! Questions? Call Joan Scherer at 856-5182.

Teen Talk Middle School JLS Parent Night- Wednesday, February 28th @ 7 PM

We are pleased to inform you that your student will have the opportunity to participate in Teen Talk Middle School, an 8-10 hour comprehensive sexual health education program developed by Health Connected. School-based comprehensive sexual health education provides an opportunity for students to receive consistent, medically accurate information about sexual health, healthy relationships, and family communication. Sexual health education is important because youth without access to this information are left vulnerable to a host of negative health consequences including sexually transmitted infections, unintended pregnancy, sexual coercion, abuse, and exploitation. Students who have participated report an increase in self-awareness and acceptance, how to make safe choices, and knowledge in who they can talk to.

Teen Talk Middle School covers the following areas:

- Personal values reflection
- Sexual and reproductive anatomy
- Abstinence/not having sex & refusal skills
- Healthy relationships
- Decision-making and communication skills
- Family communication - please be prepared for a homework assignment which involves your child discussing these issues with you
- Sexual safety, consent, and the law
- Birth control, including a condom demonstration
- Sexually transmitted infections, including HIV
- Gender, sexual identity, and sexual orientation
- Body image in the media

Instructional materials are available for viewing at your school's front office during regular office hours. Materials will also be available at the District Office in Educational Services from 8:00 am - 4:45 pm. For after-hours appointments, please contact Wellness & Support Services at health@pausd.org or (650)833-4208.

We will be hosting our Parent Education Night on Wednesday, February 28th at JLS in the Cafetorium from 7:00-8:00 pm. Parent Education Nights offer parents the opportunity to receive details about the content of your child's instruction, the latest adolescent sexual health legislation, and raise any questions or concerns about the program.
