Deadline March 16: Student signups for JLS Service Week, March 22-26:

This year during JLS Service Week, all students will be doing digital service projects during their Advisory classes the week of March 22. In addition, students can choose to sign up for an after-school, parent-led zoom project during which you'll make cat and dog toys for a local animal shelter with materials you can easily find at home. After you do the project, you'll drop it off at a location near JLS. For more information on what you'll be making and materials, you'll need for your project, go to the student sign up sheet here. We have a limited number of available spots. Signups will close March 16.

If you would like to donate extra old-tshirts, tennis balls, and toilet paper rolls so that students without these items can participate, please email JLSServiceDay@gmail.com for donation instructions.

Family Service Opportunity Now until April 18

JLS Service Week, in partnership with Youth Community Service (YCS), is offering a Family Service opportunity, for families to support families in need, and for schools to support schools. In collaboration with Reach Potential Movement (RPM), JLS families are invited to come together and support neighboring communities by donating snack packs, activity kits, and hygiene kits. See flyer for more information (<https://tinyurl.com/FlyerJLS>)

Register here: <https://tinyurl.com/JLSFamilyService>

Following registration, participants will be provided information about Reach Potential Movement and gain access to several project options, including detailed activity instructions. For families who would like to participate but need financial assistance, the JLS PTA will provide sponsorship for materials. Questions? Email: Jennifer Lee Thuresson: jennifer@youthcommunityservice.org

The PiE Survey Is Here

Each spring, we ask for your feedback to guide our decision-making for the next year. This year's survey is now available - please check your email inbox. It only takes a couple of minutes. We want to hear from you!

Palo Alto PTA Council News

*NEW PTA Council Seeks Volunteers

The PTA Council Nominating Committee is currently seeking expressions of interest from individuals in the community who would like to learn more about becoming a member of the PTA Council Executive Board for the 2021-22 school year. We are looking for community members who have a passion for improving the educational experience of all students and preferably have experience on their school PTA or site council. Talk to us about stepping into a leadership role or how you can participate on a committee. Contact the Nominating Committee at : parliamentarian@paloaltopta.org

*NEW2e Self Advocacy Panel—Help Your Student Understand Their Brain, and Help Their Teachers Understand It, Too! (For parents of K-12 students)

Mon Mar 29, 7-8:30pm Zoom info sent the day before the event

Panel Featuring: Dr. Keri Berquist, Psychologist, Nancy Kong, Educational Therapist, Toni Ratzburg, Clinical Director, MFT, RSVP here: <https://forms.gle/vKZJGfWBoJX6ejBXA>

Twice-exceptional, or 2e, students have exceptional talents and experience learning challenges such as autism spectrum disorder, ADHD, dyslexia, anxiety, and more. Knowing how your brain learns is touted as one of the most important skills 2e students should develop. Explore the prerequisites to self-advocacy, discover how to help students understand what their brain needs to succeed at school, learn specific developmentally-appropriate techniques to try with your 2e learners, and gain skills to help you and your child communicate with educators about your child's needs. Sponsored by Palo Alto CAC (CAC Palo Alto), Palo Alto Council of PTAs (<https://ptac.paloaltopta.org/>) and REEL (www.reelpaloalto.org)

*NEW6th District Scholarships for Seniors
